

MYRNE B. NEVISON PROFESSORSHIP IN COUNSELLING PSYCHOLOGY

The Faculty of Education invites applications for the Myrne B. Nevison Professorship in Counselling Psychology. We seek applications that articulate a clear vision for achieving demonstrable impact in Education through advancement of knowledge and improvement in practice. In line with our commitment to honoring the intent of donors whose generous gifts establish professorships, the recipient of this Professorship is charged with the following mandate:

- Engage in applied research to support the advancement and understanding of preventive approaches in counselling for marginalized and at-risk populations. Research will be aimed at developing and/or evaluating interventions related to the early identification, assessment, treatment and ongoing evaluation of marginalized and at-risk populations and identifying factors associated with best outcomes. Of central importance is research concerning preventive counselling programs and services provided to children and adolescents within our school system, and others connected to the school/family/work system.
- Advance program development, utilizing a lifespan perspective and focusing on at-risk and marginalized populations, to contribute to the development of preventive approaches within the discipline of counselling psychology that could lead to larger systemic and social change.
- Cultivate outreach initiatives that will increase engagement with communities invested in preventive counselling strategies provincially, nationally, and/or internationally.
- Provide leadership and contribute to building professional capacity through support and mentorship of graduate students in the context of the Professorship.

Applicants are asked to submit the following materials for consideration by the Search Committee:

- i. Cover Letter (2 page max.)
- ii. Curriculum Vitae
- iii. Vision Statement (1500 words max.)
  - Please outline your vision for a three-year term as incumbent of the Professorship, indicating how you would implement the mandate described above, and how you would assess the impact of the proposed Professorship activities and initiatives
- iv. Two letters of reference:
  - One university affiliated faculty member external to the UBC Faculty of Education;
  - One community member with whom the applicant engaged on issues relevant to this professorship.

Criteria for the Search Committee's evaluation, to be evidenced in the cover letter and curriculum vitae, will include: excellence and impact of research and scholarship; record of research and programmatic activity relevant to the mandate of the Professorship; and evidence of effective student research mentorship. Furthermore, the vision statement will be evaluated with respect to alignment with the mandate of the Professorship; potential for advancement of knowledge and impact on practice; innovation, effective use of resources, and potential for culturally appropriate engagement and impact in schools and communities.

Note: Each short-listed candidate will be asked to participate in an individual interview with the committee followed by a one-hour Question & Answer session with the Faculty of Education community. Prior to this meeting, the candidate's curriculum vitae and vision statement will be made available within the Faculty of Education.

Terms of the position:

1. The Professorship will be awarded to a full-time, tenured UBC faculty member in Counselling Psychology at the level of Associate/Full Professor.
2. The Professorship will provide financial support of $30,000 per year, to be directed to research activities, research assistant support, and programmatic initiatives. With approval, funds can be used for research course release. Release of funds is contingent on acceptance of a proposed Year One budget for Professorship activities.
3. Following appointment of a recommended candidate, the new incumbent will be awarded a three year term; at the end of the term, the incumbent may apply for reappointment as part of an open search.
4. Implementation and oversight of the Professorship, with respect to budget review and annual reporting, will be guided by the Faculty of Education's Guidelines for Endowed Chairs and Professorships, as well as Development Office requirements for annual reports to donors who fund the Professorship.

The appointment will be effective July 1st, 2015, or as soon as the position is filled. The position is subject to budgetary approval. Consideration of candidates will begin on May 18, 2015 and will continue until the position is filled. To ensure full consideration, please submit application materials by May 18, 2015. The start date is subject to final arrangement with the appointee.
